DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Cassidy (US 6,206,654).

With respect to claim 1, Cassidy discloses an inflatable mattress comprising a first chamber (16A), a first valve assembly (86A), an air pump for inflating the first chamber through the first valve, a first switch (28A) for activating the air pump and opening the first valve, a second chamber (16B), a second valve (86B) through which the air pump inflates the second chamber, a second switch (28B) to activate the air pump and open the second valve; wherein the air pump has a first pair of electrodes and a second pair of electrodes, the air pump operating in a first direction when the first pair of electrodes contact each other, the air pump operating in a second, reverse direction opposite the first direction when the second pair of electrodes contact each other (see col. 5 ll. 1-63), and the first switch controls the air pump to operate, and the second switch also controls the air pump to operate.

Art Unit: 3679

With respect to claim 2, further including a slider (120B1, 120B2) connected to the first and second pairs of electrodes and provided beside the switches in such a way that the air pump is activate by the first switch and the second switch via the slider.

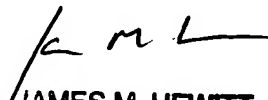

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
